Catechism of the Catholic Church

Part 1: THE PROFESSION OF FAITH
Section 2: I. The Creeds
Chapter 2: I Believe in Jesus Christ, the only Son of God. The Good News: God Has Sent His Only Son

428 “Whoever is called “to teach Christ” must first seek “the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus”; he must suffer “the loss of all things. . .” in order to “gain Christ and be found in him”, and “to know him and the power of his resurrection, and (to) share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that if possible (he) may attain the resurrection from the dead”.<sup>17</sup>

429 “From this loving knowledge of Christ springs the desire to proclaim him, to “evangelize”, and to lead others to the “yes” of faith in Jesus Christ. But at the same time the need to know this faith better makes itself felt. To this end, following the order of the Creed, Jesus’ principal titles - “Christ”, “Son of God”, and “Lord” (article 2) - will be presented. the Creed next confesses the chief mysteries of his life - those of his Incarnation

(article 3), Paschal mystery (articles 4 and 5) and glorification (articles 6 and 7).”

Article 2: “And in Jesus Christ, His Only Son, Our Lord”

Section 1: Jesus

430 “Jesus means in Hebrew: “God saves.” At the annunciation, the angel Gabriel gave him the name Jesus as his proper name, which expresses both his identity and his mission.<sup>18</sup> Since God alone can forgive sins, it is God who, in Jesus his eternal Son made man, “will save his people from their sins”.<sup>19</sup> in Jesus, God recapitulates all of his history of salvation on behalf of men.”

431 In the history of salvation God was not content to deliver Israel “out of the house of bondage”<sup>20</sup> by bringing them out of Egypt. He also saves them from their sin. Because sin is always an offence against God, only he can forgive it.<sup>21</sup> For this reason Israel, becoming more and more aware of the universality of sin, will no longer be able to seek salvation except by invoking the name of the Redeemer God.<sup>22</sup>
